March is Women's Month!

WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT

PROFESSIONAL DRESS FASHION SHOW
Saturday, March 1, 2014
3:00-5:00 PM, Forestry Atrium

Kick off a month of women's empowerment events by coming to the Professional Dress Fashion Show to hear from Ellen Horsch, Michigan Tech Vice President for Administration, and Julie McNamara, Michigan Tech Civil Engineering Alumna, about what to wear, what to avoid, and how your attire impacts the way you are viewed in the workplace. Student models will showcase examples of professional dress in the accompanying fashion show. Attendees will receive clothing coupons for Maurices.

PROFESSIONAL DRESS PHOTO SHOOT
Monday, March 3, 2014
9:00-3:00 PM, MUB Alumni Lounge

Ladies, do you want a leg up on the competition? Then put on your best professional attire and come get a head shot that will help you get ahead! Professional photographer Emily Dennis will take your photograph, allow you to select the shot you want to keep, and will email you a fully edited photograph after the event. And it's FREE! Attendees will also receive clothing coupons for Maurices. Check out Emily's work at www.emily-dennis.com.

"WOMEN'S HEALTH AND THE CONSTITUTION"
LECTURE BY SANDRA FLUKE
Thursday, March 20, 2014
6:00-7:15 PM, MUB Ballroom A

Attorney, activist, and California State Senate candidate Sandra Fluke will discuss "Women's Health and the Constitution," addressing state and federal legislation that impacts women's access to health care and the impact that prohibitive legislation has on women's health, family planning, and reproductive rights. Fluke's lecture is part of the Center for Diversity and Inclusion's 2013-2014 Social Justice Lecture Series.

SOCIETY OF INTELLECTUAL SISTERS BRA SHOW
Friday, March 21, 2014
6:00-9:00 PM, MUB Ballroom A

The Society of Intellectual Sisters (SIS) will host their 10th Annual Bra Show, a fundraiser benefitting the National Breast Cancer Foundation. This year's theme is "Disney." Students, staff, faculty, and community members are invited to decorate bras to fit the theme. SIS will host four bra-making workshops (all supplies provided) in Fisher 125: February 26 and 27 from 7-9pm, March 4 from 8-10pm, and March 18 from 7-9pm. All bras will be displayed during the Show, and donations for the Foundation will be collected at the event. Questions about bra making, the Bra Show, or donations can be sent to sis-l@mtu.edu.

"SALARY NEGOTIATIONS: HOW TO GET PAID WHAT YOU'RE WORTH"
WORKSHOP BY RUTH ARCHER
Thursday, March 27, 2014
6:00-7:00 PM, Fisher 139

Did you know that according to studies done by the American Association of University Women, college-educated women earn 5% less than their male peers the first year out of school and that, over the course of a 40-year career, the average woman loses $431,000 as a result of the wage gap? Come to this workshop with Dr. Ruth Archer and learn how you can get paid what you're worth.

Sponsored by:
Women's Programming Committee (WPC), Center for Diversity and Inclusion (CDD), Presidential Council of Alumnae (PCA), Society of Intellectual Sisters (SIS), Women's Leadership Council (WLC), Society of Women Engineers (SWE), Parent's Fund of the Michigan Tech Fund, Alumni Association, Emily Dennis Photography, Maurices, the Visiting Women & Minority Lecturer/Scholar Series (VWLSS), which is funded by the President's Office and a grant to the Office of Institutional Equity from the State of Michigan's King-Chavez-Parks Initiative, and the Panhelcien Council.