Abstract	Collection, 1870-1996; 2005, compiled by Reverend Herman Page on the history of Michigan's Copper Country with a particular focus on Copper Country railroads. This collection covers most of the railroads of the Copper Country including the Duluth, South Shore, and Atlantic Railway, the Mineral Range Railroad, and the Hancock and Calumet Railroad as well as information on various mining companies and locations in the Copper Country. Includes glass plate negatives, photographs, clippings, correspondence, maps, diagrams, postcards and memorabilia.

Preferred Citation

MS-082, Reverend Herman Page Collection, Michigan Technological University Archives and Copper Country Historical Collections, Houghton, Michigan.

Biography

Reverend Herman Page was an Episcopal priest in Michigan's Copper Country and a railroad enthusiast. Reverend Page grew up in the Marquette, Michigan area where his father was also an Episcopal priest. Reverend Page served as the rector for the Trinity Episcopal Church in Houghton in the early 1980's. Page is now retired in Topeka, Kansas, but is still active with the Soo Line Historical and Technological Society.
