NOTHING TO ENVY

ORDINARY LIVES IN NORTH KOREA

BARBARA DEMICK
Summer Reading 2015
How will Reading as Inquiry work?
All first-year students are expected to read this book before arriving at Michigan Tech. Several activities during Orientation Week will focus on the reading.

How do I order a book?
You may purchase your book online and have it mailed directly to you from the Michigan Tech Bookstore. Visit www.bookstore.mtu.edu for more information.

In order to prepare you for college-level reading, inquiry, and discussion, Michigan Technological University sponsors a Reading as Inquiry initiative each year for the new incoming class. Over the summer, you will read Nothing to Envy.

Several book discussions will be held throughout Orientation Week. Please note the time and location of each discussion below, and be prepared for an in-depth discussion of Nothing to Envy.

Points to Ponder

• What themes did you take away from reading Nothing to Envy?
• What was the most compelling theme of the book?
• What do you think is the greatest challenge facing North Korea today?
• What do you think would be the most compelling challenge facing North Korea today?
• What will you do after completing reading the book?
• What will you do during Orientation Week to prepare yourself for the book?
• What will you do after Orientation Week to continue learning about North Korea?

Barbara Demick, author